Toilet training for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders and other developmental disabilities is complex and may involve a broad range of underlying health and/or medical issues. This workshop is not intended to serve as a clinical model. It is designed to provide behavioral strategies to help support outcomes. You will receive information on determining readiness, establishing a routine, habit training, schedule training, overcoming fear, communicating the need to use the toilet, and modeling and pre-teaching to support success using a behavioral approach.