

AP ECONOMICS:

MR. MAHER

Why Should I take AP Economics?

- AP Economics replaces the semester classes Economics and Personal Finance
- bump on GPA (earn 1.0 bump)
- Potential to earn college credit
- Prepared for the rigors of college
- In class among the best and the brightest

Things to consider:

- Must go the extra mile for the "A"
- Must balance extra-curricular with AP course load
- Independent learning is an expectation
- Individual students pay for exam ($80)...Financial assistance is available if one qualifies (AP Economics is two exams) Micro and Macro

Typical Class:

- Class is taught with a combination of hands on activities and traditional lecture format.
- Homework is primarily reading which is assessed through routine reading quizzes.

Is

AP Economics right for you?
