

Temple of Heaven

Level 1 Thematic Overview

- L 1 Name, nationality, and numbers
- L 2 Family and Occupations
- L 3 Birthdays, Chinese zodiac
- L 4 Hobbies
- L 5 Welcome to a Chinese Family
- L 6 Dining in a Chinese Restaurant
- L 7 Clothes and colors
- L8 Sightseeing in Beijing – novice level

Level 2 Thematic Overview

- L 1 Asking Directions
- L 2 Renting an Apartment
- L 3 Birthday Party
- L 4 Celebrating Chinese New Year
- L 5 Cooking
- L 6 Seeing a Doctor
- L 7 Sports: Getting in Shape
- L8 Sightseeing in Beijing: Shopping and Eating Hotpot

Level 3 Thematic Overview

- L 1 At the Airport
- L 2 Homestay I: My Host Family’s House
- L 3 Homestay II: Talking to a Visitor
- L 4 Visiting a High School I: Talking about Classes
- L 5 Visiting a High School II: Talking about School Activities
- L 6 Visiting a High School III: Eating at a Cafeteria
- L 7 Sightseeing in Beijing I: Eating Chinese Breakfast and Shopping
- L8 Sightseeing in Beijing II: At the Forbidden City and Qujude Restaurant

More Course Information:

<https://www.lcps.org/Page/125291>

or scan

Chinese

Chinese Class

Welcomes

You!

Join Chinese club

<https://forms.gle/rvHekk176Ug4YVrw9>

LZHAO@LCPS.ORG

Why Take Chinese?

- ❖ Chinese is important in international business.
- ❖ Chinese is close to English in grammar.
- ❖ No tenses
- ❖ No verb conjugations
- ❖ No plural forms
- ❖ Chinese is offered in many colleges.
- ❖ Rich in culture
- ❖ Chinese is fun!

Course Opportunities

~ National Chinese Honor Society ~

Eligibility

- ❖ Students who have learned Chinese for 4 semesters in high schools with an average of A- or above
- ❖ Students who are willing to work as a role model in the Chinese studies

~ Credit through Testing ~

~ Seal of Biliteracy ~

~Willowcroft World Language Scholarship~

CHINESE EXCHANGE PROGRAM

When: Spring break

Where: Beijing, Xi'an & Shanghai

Benefits: Broaden knowledge base & cultivate global mindset

Forbidden City Beijing

Terracotta Soldiers Xi'an

Shanghai