

The Day of a Timber Wolf

Respectful. Responsible. Ready.

Follow your schedule

Helpful Hints

Respectful. Responsible. Ready.

Please	Excuse Me
Always Use Pack Manners
May I	Thank You

In this situation...	You Should...
Your parents bring you to school after school begins.	• Sign in at the main office and report to your house secretary.
Your bus is late arriving at school	• Report to the main office
You must leave early	• Report to the house secretary before school begins and present a note from your parent. The note must be signed by the parent and state the time and reason for the early dismissal.
You are unable to participate in PE.	• Present a medical excuse to the nurse before school.
You become ill during school hours	• Have your teacher sign your agenda and then obtain a pass from your house secretary and report to the clinic. The nurse will give you further directions.
You find an item that does not belong to you.	• Take the item to your house office
A book or other personal possession is lost.	• Before or after school, check with each of your teachers, in the cafeteria, gym/locker room, house offices, and any classroom you may have been in during the day
You have difficulty with friends or peers.	• See your guidance counselor or dean.
A teacher keeps you after class and it causes you to be late to the next class.	• Ask the teacher for a pass and present it to the teacher of your next class.
You observe damaged equipment or destruction of school property.	• Report the damage to your dean.
You observe illegal activity.	• Report your observations to an adult
You want to ride another bus to a friend's house.	• Obtain a bus pass by presenting a note from your parents to the house secretary before school begins.
You discover you have inadvertently brought an illegal item to school.	• See your dean immediately and hand over the item.

