SECOND QUARTER HAS COME AND GONE

Second quarter started with everyone's favorite time of year in the library, Book Fair! Winter weather tried to keep us down, and although it forced us to cancel Donuts with Dads, we still had a successful Book Fair. Thank you to everyone who stopped by. Stay tuned for announcements about Pastries with Parents in the spring.

In addition to our ongoing, regular class visits with 6th and 7th grade language arts throughout second quarter, in November, 7th grade language arts classes visited the library for Google Expeditions to Miami, Germany, and a Syrian refugee camp related to their study of the book Refugee. In December, 7th grade language arts classes were back for lessons on fake news in a viral world, Mrs. Slate's 6th grade classes came in for lessons on research, Ms. Kaniewski's classes came in for a winter activity, and Mrs. Demorest's and Mrs. Walsh's classes visited so the students could share picture book read-alouds with each other. At the beginning of January, 7th grade language arts classes were back for more lessons, this time on using databases to explore possible research topics. Research with both 6th and 7th grade language arts classes is continuing into 3rd quarter.

We are looking forward to our author visit with Marc Tyler Nobleman on Tuesday, March 5! He's a very interesting speaker and will focus on his research process for writing two of his nonfiction books, Boys of Steel and Bill the Boy Wonder.
