

US MILITARY RECRUITERS FOR RVHS

If you are interested in serving in the military after high school and want to start with some online research, you can find information about such opportunities at <https://www.military.com/join-armed-forces>. Below are the links to each service's recruiting website, where it provides more detailed information for its service.

Additionally, stop by the Career Center and speak with Ms. Yeh, the Career Center Specialist, about her active duty military service, as well as federal government experiences!
