Stamp Act

What does it tax?
A tax on all written documents
What did the Townshend Acts tax??

date?
Popular items...

PAINT

TEA

LEAD

GLASS

1767

PAPER
11 people shot, 5 died after British soldiers are taunted (teased)

Which event is this??

Date?
BOSTON MASSACRE 1770
What was the law that said British soldiers could live in colonists’ homes?
The Quartering Act
True or False about the Revolution:

1. Concord was the first real battle of the war.
2. Paul Revere never finished the "Midnight Ride."
3. Sam Adams led the Sons of Liberty.
All True
Crispus Attucks

Who was he?
black man killed at the Boston Massacre
What two things were Sam Adams the leader of???
SONS OF LIBERTY

BOSTON TEA PARTY
What is the refusal to buy goods such as tea called?

Don’t buy British goods!

STOP!
This means YOU.
BOYCOTT
What did Sam Adams, Paul Revere & other patriots do at The Boston Harbor?
BOSTON
TEA
PARTY
1773
What did the Intolerable Acts lead to?

Hint: 3 things
Results on Intolerable Acts

Quartering Act

No town meetings!

Boston Harbor Closed

The Massachusetts Government Act put the colony under the control of an appointed governor. The elected assembly was closed down, and town meetings were banned. Colonists lost the right to govern themselves.
All are patriots except:
Sam Adams
Thomas Hutchinson
Thomas Jefferson
John Hancock
Thomas Hutchinson is royal governor of Massachusetts.—not a patriot
The battle of Yorktown marked the end of the war & was a Colonial victory over the forces of which British leader?
LORD CORNWALLIS

WE WON!
Where were the “opening shots” of the Revolution War & the “shot heard around the world?”
LEXINGTON
Name the 3 advantages of the colonies that helped them win the Revolutionary War.
1. Colonists defending their own land and beliefs.
2. Support from France and Spain.
3. Strong leadership from people like George Washington
True or False:
1. Colonists won many early battles and caused the British to want to surrender quickly.
2. British fought using British soldiers and Hessian mercenaries.
3. Continental Army was successful because of leadership like George Washington.
4. British won more battles than colonists, but colonists won more important battles.
What does dissatisfaction mean?
Unhappiness
The Americans could not have won the war without the help of what nation?
France
When a country or person refuses to take side in an argument, it is called being
What did PHYLLIS WHEATLEY do during the Revolution?
Former slave who wrote poems supporting American independence
What was the name of treaty that ended the Revolution and officially recognized the U.S. as a nation?
Treaty of Paris
1783
What event led to the creation of colonial militias?
Meeting of the First Continental Congress
What event led to the Declaration of Independence?
Meeting of the Second Continental Congress
Put the following events in chronological order:

• Meeting of First Continental Congress
• Meeting of Second Continental Congress
• Battles of Lexington and Concord
• Passage of Coercive Acts by Parliament
1. Passage of Coercive Acts by Parliament
2. Meeting of First Continental Congress
3. Meeting of Second Continental Congress
4. Battles of Lexington and Concord
Where were the “opening shots” of the Revolution War & the “shot heard around the world?”
LEXINGTON
1st real battle of war

We are going to chase you back to Boston!

Let's get Out of here!
BATTLE OF CONCORD
We Americans were Defeated.... but it was a moral victory!

Oh no! They are shooting when they see the whites of our eyes!!
BUNKER

HILL
Which battle was an American victory turning point of war when the French joined the American cause?
BATTLE OF SARATOGA
Which battle marked the end of the war & was a Colonial victory over the forces of Lord Cornwallis?
YORKTOWN

WE WON!
What European nation, along with France, gave the Patriots assistance during the Revolutionary War?
Spain
What date was the Declaration of Independence officially approved by the Second Continental Congress?
July 4, 1776
What is the explanation of this cartoon?
Great Britain is bigger and better armed than the Patriots and felt the Declaration of Independence was a joke.