

Roman Baths

Pictures and information on Roman Baths

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Thermae> (citation)

Roman Baths had three main rooms

- caldarium (hot bath)
- tepidarium (warm bath)
- frigidarium (cold bath)

Some Roman Baths also contained steam baths

- sudatorium (moist steam bath)
- laconicum (dry steam bath)

Roman Baths have separate baths for men and women.

The Tepidarium of the thermae in the Pompeii

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tepidarium> (citation)

The Frigidarium of a Roman Bath

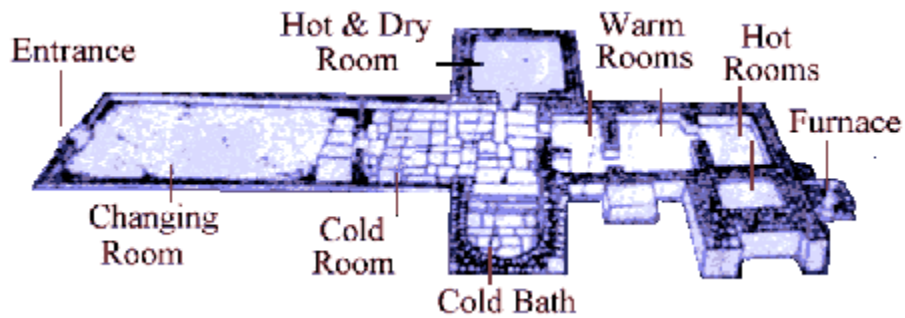

<http://eaglesanddragonspublishing.com/ancient-everyday-time-for-a-bath/> (citation)

Bath Caldarium at Pompeii

<http://www.dl.ket.org/Latin2/mores/baths/history/pompeii.htm> (citation)

Plans of a Roman Bath

<http://www.athenapub.com/britsite/bearsden.htm> (citation)

The Baths at Caracalla in Rome were the 2nd largest public baths built around 212 CE.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Baths_of_Caracalla (citation)

<http://www.destination360.com/europe/italy/rome/roman-baths> (citation)

Website on Roman Baths

<http://eaglesanddragonspublishing.com/ancient-everyday-time-for-a-bath/>

Video on Roman Baths

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GklxhR3Lv1o> (good up to 2:00 mins)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=96zyDhoXMw0> (good through 2:20 mins.)

Roman Roads

Videos

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Yu94sFmNwMw>

(last a few minutes)

<http://www.history.com/news/history-lists/8-ways-roads-helped-rome-rule-the-ancient-world#>

(lasts a few minutes)

Website on Roman roads

<http://www.history.com/news/history-lists/8-ways-roads-helped-rome-rule-the-ancient-world>

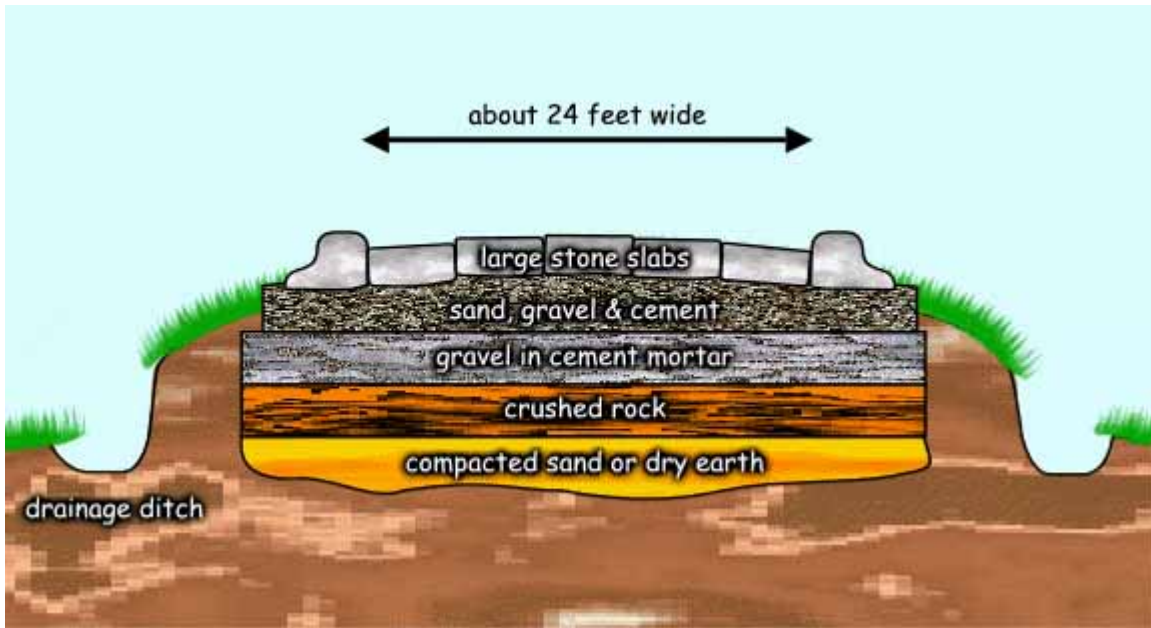

<http://www.ancient.eu/article/758/>

Pictures of Roman roads

<http://www.history.com/news/history-lists/8-ways-roads-helped-rome-rule-the-ancient-world>

(citation)

<http://www.crystalinks.com/romeroads.html> (citation)

<http://www.crystalinks.com/romeroads.html> (citation)

<http://www.historytoday.com/logan-thompson/roman-roads> (citation)