

Information on student internships in the Department of Education for community college students.

The best place to obtain information on Department internships is:

<http://www2.ed.gov/students/prep/job/intern/index.html>

. It gives you all of the ins and outs of internships here.

There are also other opportunities available to both high school and college students at the federal level, such as:

- Student Educational Employment Programs (STEP/SCEP)
- Student Career Experience Program (SCEP)
- Internships
- Summer Employment
- Volunteer Service

More information can be found at <http://www.usajobs.gov/studentjobs/>.

You may also want to try the following sources for internship opportunities:

- White House - <http://www.whitehouse.gov/about/internships>
- Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute - <http://www.chci.org/internships/>

- The Washington Center -
<http://www.twc.edu/students/>
- Ford Motor Company/Congressional Hispanic Leadership Institute
- Internship Program -
<http://www.chli.org/?08internship>
- Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities -
<http://www.hnip.net/>