

What are State requirements?

According to the Virginia Board of Education, students must complete three years of one language or two years of two different languages to fulfill the world language requirement for the Advanced Studies diploma. World language classes taken at a middle school may be used to satisfy this requirement if the student successfully completes the course and earns a high school unit of credit. In grade seven in LCPS, students can begin the study of a language for high school credit.