UNIFIED ACTIVITIES

As an inclusive school, Freedom provided the following activities:

Unified Sports: In its second year, Unified Sports offered Bocce (fall); Basketball (winter); and Track & Field (spring). Ten athletes participated with 25 partner athletes and student coaches. Freedom hosted the first Potomac Region Champions Together Unified Track & Field Meet and came in first place.

Unified Sound: Inclusive band opportunity for six musicians and 15 mentors. The group performed at the spring band concert.

Unified Choir: Inclusive vocal music opportunity for three students and 13 mentors. These students performed at the spring choral concert.

MENTAL WELLNESS

Mental wellness is a topic of emphasis at Freedom, as we continue to train both staff and students. Freedom was one of eight schools in the country selected to participate in a teen mental health first aid program offered to the sophomore class. Training curriculum was adopted by National Council for Behavioral Health in partnership with Lady Gaga's Born this Way Foundation.

E-SPORTS

Freedom hosted first-ever tournament of its kind in LCPS. Attended by teams from nine high schools. In 2019-20, VHSL will sponsor e-Sports as a tier two sport.
