Who is a UHY?

(Unaccompanied Homeless Youth)

You are an unaccompanied youth if you are a school-aged person who is not in the physical custody of a parent or court appointed guardian and who lives in inadequate or temporary settings such as:

- ◆ have run away from home.
- ◆ have been thrown out of your home.
- ◆ have been left on your own by a parent or guardian
- ◆ Have moved in with friends or relatives because you don't have a place to stay
- ◆ Are staying at a shelter, in a car, park, motel, train, or bus station
- ◆ Have no court-issued custody papers or arrangement while your parents are in jail, in the hospital/rehab or have been deported or left the country.

YOU HAVE EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS

Ask your school liaison about your rights to equal education and educational success.

1. Unaccompanied youth have the right to go to school and be enrolled immediately, even if they do not have the required registration paperwork.
2. Youth experiencing homelessness can go to their "school of origin" or the school they went to before they became homeless.
3. Youth experiencing homelessness may relocate frequently and can get transportation to and from school.
4. Unaccompanied youth can get free meals during the school day at school.
5. Youth experiencing homelessness can participate in any school-related programs.

What Your Liaison Can Do For You:

- ◆ Help you understand your educational rights
- ◆ Help you decide which school to attend
- ◆ Help you get transportation to school if you need it
- ◆ Help you when you need an adult to sign papers for you
- ◆ Help you get health care
- ◆ Help you solve or dispute problems
