JANE PRATT BLUE RIDGE MOUNTAINS EDUCATION AWARD

Friends of the Blue Ridge Mountains was founded nearly a decade ago to preserve and protect the treasured and historic conditions of that mountain range. Jane Pratt helped create and expand FBRN after she had established The Mountain Institute to protect mountains globally by improving the sustainability of their ecosystems and involving the people of mountain cultures in these activities. One of the goals was to encourage local students to become more knowledgeable about the importance of mountains and more involved in protecting the Blue Ridge. This award is one key element in that endeavor and now granted in her memory. This award is presented annually to a high school senior who satisfies the following:

1. Is currently enrolled in or has completed an environmental studies/biological sciences program with a B grade average or better
2. Demonstrates a clear commitment to environmental stewardship through participation in school projects, internships, and community activities
3. Has performed a minimum of 8 hours of volunteer service during their senior year working directly on projects on the Blue Ridge Mountains sponsored by FMRM or like-minded environmental organizations; opportunities are available through FBRM
4. Receives unanimous endorsement to receive the award from representatives of high school and FBRM at least three weeks prior to the award ceremony in the spring.

DEADLINE: April 15, 2020
Kenneth W. Culbert Elementary School PTO-Sponsored Scholarship

The KWC PTO Scholarship was created to recognize a former student planning to continue their education with a college, university, trade school or certificated program. The $500 scholarship is awarded annually to one applicant who meets the criteria of eligibility and submits all documents and attachments with the completed application by the specified deadline.

Eligibility and Requirements:

1. Applicant must be a senior in high school.
2. Applicant must have attended Kenneth W. Culbert Elementary School for a minimum of three completed years (grade levels).
3. Applicant must provide a copy of their letter of acceptance and commitment from the college, university, trade school, or certificated program the applicant plans to attend.
4. Applicant must provide a sealed transcript from their high school guidance counselor with a minimum GPA of 2.0.
5. Applicant must complete the application and if applicable, attach a one-page resume to include extra-curricular activities, awards/honors, and community service.
6. Applicant must write a one-page essay describing:
   a. Your education and memories at KWC and why you would like to be considered for the scholarship.
   b. Your most rewarding volunteer experiences and activities and how they have personally affected your life.
7. Applicant must provide two letters of recommendation; one academic and the other from a non-family member commenting on your abilities, reliability, determination, and capacity to achieve.

Scholarship Application Process:

Scholarship application, attachments, and essay will be judged by a panel of KWC PTO board members. The panel will review all information supplied with the application, including the GPA, however more importance is placed on the essay portion and letters of recommendation. Only applications that submit all required materials will be accepted and presented to the panel. All applications must be mailed. No hand delivered applications will be accepted.

The winner will receive a certificate at their high school awards ceremony from the current KWC PTO President. If unable to be presented in person at the awards ceremony, a formal letter will be mailed to the student no later than June 15th. The scholarship check will be made payable to the college, university, trade school or certificated program and mailed directly to the school. The check may be used for tuition, books and associated materials, or room and board for on-campus housing.

All material should be put in one envelope and postmarked by March 25th 2020 and mailed to:
Kenneth W. Culbert Elementary School PTO

Criteria: Entrant must be a senior who both legally resides in AND attends high school (public, private or home school) in Loudoun County and intends to enter a college or university or a trade school following high school. The following are ineligible to participate: family members of the Board of Directors of Joshua’s Hands Entries may either be in essay or video format on the theme “A Servant’s Heart: Choosing to Serve”. The heart of the essay/video topic is to encourage students to write about how others who have mentored them (intentionally or unintentionally) or service that has changed their lives. Please note this should NOT be litany of service commitments but more of an anecdotal account of the impact service and mentors have made on the applicant’s life.
Essay submission must be no more than 1500 words. The essay MUST be written and saved as a Microsoft Word/pdf document and sent as an attachment Video submission must be no longer than two minutes in length and involve more than still photos. While an applicant may involve others in the production of the video, each applicant may only submit one single, unique video for consideration and no scholarship may be split between multiple parties.
No entry shall contain a performance that has been broadcast or streamed, published or televised, as part of a recording of a motion picture film or television program. All video entrants must agree to have their video posted on the Joshua’s Hands website and Facebook. Video must be uploaded to YouTube, and the link must be included in the email with the entry form attached.
Each entrant may submit only one essay/video. It must be original, and must not infringe upon any material protected by copyright. For anonymity in judging, the student’s name should NOT be anywhere in the essay/video, including the header/footer or credits.
Each entry must be supported by at least one but not more than two letters of recommendation (500 words or fewer) from community service organizations testifying to the applicant’s volunteerism/service. Letters should not be written by the student’s parents or immediate relatives, and MUST be written and saved as a Microsoft Word/pdf document. They may not be included in the body of an e-mail, but must be sent as an attachment to Joshua’s Hands (info@JoshuasHands.org) with “Scholarship Letter of Reference for (Student’s Name – first and last)” in the subject line.
2020 Essay Entry Form must be completed (not included in word count) and submitted with the essay/video as a separate attachment. Each entry MUST BE accompanied by a photo of the applicant in JPEG format. This should be a “headshot” or graduation photo to be used in announcing the winners. Essay/video, entry form, photo AND letter(s) of recommendation must be received via e-mail, by 11:59 p.m. on April 15, 2020. Date and time when the email was sent (not received) will govern eligibility. Only e-mailed submissions will be accepted. Incomplete application packets will be disqualified. Submission of an essay/video and photo represents consent to use all information and content for announcement and publicity regarding the Scholarship contest.

The criteria for judging the essays are: originality, understanding of servanthood, community service, proper grammar and spelling (essays), quality of production (videos), and adherence to the competition topic. Three scholarships of $1,000 will be awarded at the discretion of the Board of Directors (who reserves the right to forego awarding the scholarships if there are an insufficient number of entries or quality essays). Winners will be selected on or about May 1, 2020, and will be awarded the scholarship at each student’s high school award ceremony. The judges’ decisions are final. No prior notification will be given to students. Winners be posted on the website after the scholarships have been awarded.

INSTRUCTIONS

Founded in 1972, the National Naval Officers Association (NNOA) is comprised of officers from the Coast Guard, the Navy, and the Marine Corps – the nation’s Sea Services. NNOA provides professional development and mentoring in an effort to recruit, promote, and retain minority officers in the Sea Services. NNOA seeks to strengthen a diverse officer corps to enhance operational readiness in the Sea Services and has a long history of providing a positive image of the Sea Services in minority communities and educational institutions. Each year, the Washington, DC Chapter of the NNOA (DCNNOA) awards scholarships starting at $1,000 to minority youth from the Washington, DC Metropolitan Area based on academic achievement, positive community involvement, commitment, and financial need. Scholarship recipients select their major and attend the college or university of their choice without any obligation to join or affiliate with the military, unless stipulated by the scholarship sponsor. Students must submit a complete application package in order to be considered for a scholarship. Mailed application packages, including official transcripts, must be postmarked by February 28, 2020 and addressed to: DCNNOA Scholarship Program, P. O. Box 30784, Alexandria, VA 22310 or emailed to both Stephen.Williams@navy.mil and diedraware@yahoo.com. Applicants should take care to ensure applications are legible and signed. A complete application package consists of: • Application Form • Transcript (use the attached transcript request form to obtain an official copy) • A listing of extracurricular activities, community service activities, academic honors, and positions of leadership • Statement of financial need and/or special circumstances (limit 1 page) • Two letters of recommendation from school officials or other persons of influence in life, other than relatives, who are in a position to address character, citizenship, and leadership • Recent photograph (wallet size, high quality if possible) NOTE: Students selected to receive a DCNNOA scholarship will be notified directly via telephone call. Please ensure an active telephone number is listed for you on your application form. Students selected to receive one of DCNNOA’s scholarships will be presented their scholarship award at a banquet on Saturday, April 25, 2020 at 6:00 p.m. at the Greater Waldorf Jaycees Community Center, 3090 Crain Hwy, Waldorf, MD 20601. These scholarships are intended to support the recipients during their freshman year of college. Recipients must enroll full-time at a two or four-year accredited college or university for scholarship funds to be deposited with that institution for the recipient’s use. Enrollment verification must be submitted to DCNNOA by August 31, 2020. Scholarship funds will not be deposited until August 2020. Additional scholarship information can be accessed on the DCNNOA website (https://nnoa.org/chapter-dcnnoa) by clicking the “Scholarships” link at the top of the
