

Respect during Distant Learning

- ✓ Speak kindly and use your manners
- ✓ Address staff with courtesy
- ✓ Listen while others are talking and wait your turn
- ✓ Mute your microphone when not talking
- ✓ Use T.H.I.N.K. when deciding what to say: Is it TRUE, HONEST, IMPORTANT, NECESSARY and KIND

Act Responsibly During Distant Learning

 Be honest. Complete your own work.

Remember the Acceptable Use Policy and Students Rights & Responsibilities all students signed.

 Be gentle with your LCPS issued chromebook

 Arrive on-time, ready to learn with your supplies

 Check email and ask questions when you needed

 Make a plan for organization-

Examples-keep a calendar, make a to do list, have a designated work space

Remember Safety during Distance Learning

✓ Make good choices that keep yourself and others safe

✓ Remember to use your school issued computer for academic use only

✓ See or hear something, say something to a trusted adult

Know we SUPPORT YOU

-  Teachers create lessons that are best for you
-  Deans are here to keep the learning environment safe and effective
-  Counselors and the other adults at BRMS are available for social/emotional/academic support
-  Please reach out when you need help

USE YOUR EMAIL

Please EMAIL your teachers, counselors, your dean or any other trusted adult in school when you have a question or concern

