

The International Club at your school is hosting a get-acquainted party for the foreign exchange students. Your job is to call some of the students to invite them to the party, but you don't have the telephone numbers for the names on your list. Read the following names to your partner, listen, and then write down each student's phone number.

1. Juan García _____
2. Pedro López _____
3. Rosa Ochoa _____
4. Anita Pérez _____
5. Paulina Torres _____
6. Alicia Ortiz _____
7. Alberto Gómez _____
8. Felipe Suárez _____
9. Alejandro Rivas _____
10. Pilar Castro _____

Your partner needs the phone numbers on the following list. Be prepared to read them. (NOTE: People in Spanish-speaking countries usually pause twice when they say telephone numbers. For the number 228-3940, they would say 228-39-40 [dos, dos, ocho, treinta y nueve, cuarenta].)
