

Specialized Math in Action: Engaging Strategies to Support Students at Home for Parents of Students with Individual Education Plans (IEPs)

Parent Resource Services
Loudoun County Public Schools

Thursday, November 14, 2019 from 9:00 AM—11:00 AM

OR

Monday, November 18, 2019 from 6:00 PM—8:00 PM

LCPS Administrative Building
21000 Education Court
Ashburn, VA 20148

Presented by: Jennifer Sassano,
Special Education Supervisor,
Specialized Reading and Math

What is special about specially designed math instruction? An overview of specialized math instruction will be provided, followed by hands-on, active participation in engaging games that build conceptual mathematics understanding. There will be opportunity to ask questions about instructional techniques, and learn through experiencing the approach! Parents will come away with ideas and resources to reinforce the learning of mathematical concepts through fun and creative family engagement!
