

MEET THE Teacher

Welcome

Mrs. Wilson, Gifted Teacher

I am excited to start my 23rd year teaching as part of Tiger Nation. I have taught K-12 at public, private and magnet schools. I am passionate about challenging all students and helping them find their own individual paths.

My Favorites

About me

I earned my B.A. in History and my Master of Teaching from UVA. My husband and I moved to Sterling this summer; he also works for Loudoun County Schools. We have two grown daughters: Casey is in graduate school at UVA studying Public Policy and Gabby just graduated from JMU and moved to Arlington where she works at a theater.
