

This site is in development as the Office of Special Education and the division of Gifted Services work in collaboration toward providing programming and resources for our families. The resources listed below will serve as a beginning point for our work.

Virginia Department of Education

VDOE created this resource to support parents and teachers in identifying and serving 2e learners.

http://www.doe.virginia.gov/instruction/gifted\_ed/twice\_exceptional.pdf

Twice – Exceptional Newsletter

<http://2enewsletter.com>

Bi-monthly newsletter that addresses different areas of learning challenges for students who are gifted and who have a learning disability.

Helpful articles, strategies, resources, research and recommended books are shared for teachers and parents.

National Association for the Gifted (NAGC)

<http://www.nagc.org>

NAGC is the national organization for gifted education. This site shares research, common myths, resources, hot topics and has a frequently asked questions to support administrators, teachers and parents.

NEA: The Twice Exceptional Dilemma

<http://www.nea.org/assets/docs/twiceexceptional.pdf>

This publication includes information on identification of twice exceptional learners, provides common characteristics of students who are both gifted and disabled and offers suggestions for accommodations and available resources.

Uniquely Gifted

<http://www.uniquelygifted.org>

This site offers resources designed to support teachers and parents of gifted children with learning challenges. This resource includes articles, recommended books and information on specific areas of struggle.

LD Online

<http://www.ldonline.org>

Many articles, recommendations and strategies for twice exceptional children.

Educational Resources Information Center

<http://www.hoagiesgifted.org>

This website focus on gifted education to include twice exceptional learners to support parents, teachers and students.