

Let's celebrate Read Across America week!

March 1st to 5th is known nationally as Read Across America Week and it's a week that we celebrate all things reading!

Because of that, Mrs. Redman is hosting a Book Character Celebration!

Here's what you'll need:

- An Empty Toilet Paper Roll
- Various craft supplies (paper, glue, tape, etc.)

And that's it! Create your favorite book character!

Then, email a photo of your creation to Mrs. Redman at Lori.Redman@LCPS.org, send it through a Schoology Message, or upload it to our Book Character Padlet: <https://bit.ly/3qv1JhR>

Mrs. Redman will showcase all submissions on the Morning News Show the week of March 8th- so stay tuned to see what awesome characters our Countryside community comes up with!

Have fun, and Happy Reading!!!

Here are some examples found on Google Images for inspiration:

