Loudoun County Crisis Intervention Team (CIT)
Loudoun County Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) is a collaborative effort with Loudoun County Sheriff’s Office and other Stakeholders to fulfill a statewide initiative to improve behavioral health emergency response services. Loudoun County CIT exists to:

- Improve safety of Law Enforcement and respondent during crisis situations involving a person with mental health needs;
- Increase Law Enforcement knowledge of various mental health presentations to improve verbal and behavioral responses;
- Increase the number of mental health evaluations for individuals in crisis who come to the attention of Law Enforcement;
- Raise community awareness of CIT trained Law Enforcement;
- Increase public recognition of need for mental health care for citizens of Loudoun County.
