

What did you find helpful:

"Everyone speaking their stories" Elementary Parent

"Good communication and hear from all parties and then come up with a mutual agreement" Elementary Parent

"Open, honest dialogue; Non-confrontational; Good example to teach conflict resolution" Middle School Parent

"The participants got to share their thoughts and understand the burden to others" Middle School Parent

"Hearing both sides of the story" Middle School Student

"The agreement" Middle school Student

"Everyone having a voice and being heard" Middle School Parent

"The ability for the boys to come face to face and discuss what happened" Middle School Administrator

"To hear how other people felt" Middle School Student

"Small setting made it comfortable for the kids to speak" Middle School Parent

"They apologized and that was helpful" Middle School Student

"Everyone had an opportunity to speak and understood as a school we will be taking steps to repair this individually and school wide" Middle School Administrator

"Honest discussion, all parties heard" High School Administrator

"Getting a resolution" High School Student

"Fixing the situation and talking about how we felt and fix the problem" High School Student

"Creating a plan for both parties to follow" High School Administrator

"I was able to find another alternative solution to resolving the conflict rather than just being suspended" High School Student

"Respecting each other and both families coming together to make an agreement" High School student

"Bringing everyone together" High School Parent

"That the other student and I can move forward and have respect for one another" High School Student

"That people heard me and helped me" Middle School Student

"The opportunity to be honest" Middle School Administrator

"That there were a lot of people to help us" Middle School Student

"The facilitators were patient and understanding" Middle School Parent

"The process helped to sort out the problem and helped repair the relationship among the students" Middle School Parent

“Having everyone express their thoughts and feelings” Middle School Administrator

“That the student and her family were so open and reflective” High School Administrator

“Learning the power of social media” High School Administrator

“To face each other and have the opportunity to talk about it” High School Parent

“That I could hear my teacher and see how she felt along with the assistant principal and my parents” High School Student