Warm-Up:
The picture is an artistic version of a document's intro. Look carefully and then translate this picture to determine the actual words on your own notebook paper.

Why should we care??

Where do these words come from?

What is the purpose of that document?

Why did the framers include this in the beginning of the document?

What does it mean?

Review the "Words and their Meanings of the Preamble" definition hand out.

Read the word/phrase in the preamble or meaning that is written on your notecard.

If you have a word/phrase - find a classmate with the meaning of your word.

If you have a meaning - find a classmate with the word/phrase that your meaning defines.
