- Five Goals of Education Equity- first goal discussed this evening/ analyze the data.

State of LCPS- Dr. Tyler
- There are challenges, but we are well equipped to handle it
- Parents/Audience was warned that the data will either confirm their thoughts or provide insight
- What groups do you think of when you think of gaps in achievement?
MSAAC General Body Meeting
Meeting Minutes

- At a point it becomes unacceptable and you have to start implementing different approaches that yield different outcomes.
- Different outcomes are not acceptable for different students….it should be Equitable across the board

- Slides
  - Chart 1 – new rigor testing but overall relatively high over the last 3 year. Chart just had year over time…2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 proficiency
  - Chart 2 – LCPS continues to outperform other nearby Districts, PW, Fairfax, etc.
  - Chart 3 – Achievement by Student group
  - More clarity and obvious that ELL and Hispanics remain about 20-25% lower than Asian and White students
  - How are certain families/subgroups getting certain outcomes and what can other subgroups be doing differently to change the outcome
  - With proper instruction, all students can learn
  - We have a persistent gap

- How to address the Gap/close the gap
  - Subtle opportunity or environmental gaps
  - Family factors and engaging learning environments
  - John Hattie study to provide extensive insight towards concentrated, persistent, and engage opportunities to close the gap
  - MSAAC will revisit this issue; membership was asked to select what factors they felt most contributed to the success of a student. Feedback will be tabulated for discussion at the next meeting.

Conversation with Dr. Eric Williams- Superintendent

- Are we doing our best at engaging, connecting, challenging, and supporting our students
- Show’d picture of Dr. Williams connecting with student when he was a teacher in Connecticut
- What do we need to engage all students
- Change the course
- What are we going to do
- Are we doing our best at attracting, retaining, supporting, and recruiting teachers, that are responsible for leading our students. Do we have a diverse staff to meet our diverse student population?
- Chair mentioned current efforts underway with MSAAC and Asst. Superintendent For Personnel Services, and Director of Personnel, Secondary (Dr. Hough and Dr. Asia Jones)
- Recapped briefly meeting on Sept 30 and continued discussions with outcomes to follow
- Vision 2020 – Strategic plan in process
  - MSAAC asked to be part of the plan
MSAAC General Body Meeting
Meeting Minutes

- Commissioned at SB meeting on Tuesday
- Shared and create an authentic plan
- Have a plan that moves towards 2020 – Kindergarten to Graduation

- What can parent do?
- What deliberate actions is the District doing to recruit and retain and attract
- Dr. Williams – being new didn’t overcommit before understanding the full needs in LCPS- however, he mentioned that it was just commissioned and they will likely pick 5 target areas, to build upon. He shared that MSAAC should be part of the conversation and the development of such a plan.
- Dr. Williams mentioned even though schools developed their SIP, the District 2020 Strategic Plan will draw parallels and connections. This plan will engage, augment school’s SIP.
