

Ryan Bartel Foundation Acceptance of Others Scholarship Award – up to 5 @ $1,000 each (determined annually by the RB Foundation Board)

Criteria:

Graduating Senior from any High School with a We're All Human Committee who will be continuing his/her education in a career/technical school.

In memory of Ryan Bartel, Woodgrove HS Class of 2015, this award recognizes a student who consistently:

- Demonstrates through their words and actions, acceptance and respect of others
- Seeks out, recognizes and embraces the differences and uniqueness of every individual
- Does not pass judgment of others at face value
- Offers unconditional support and comfort to those who need it, especially those who seem alone or generally feel challenged with life
- Stands up for what is right
- Is not afraid to intervene and say 'Enough' to any form of bullying.

Students cannot nominate themselves; students have to be nominated anonymously by their peers from any grade or other members of the school. Students are encouraged to look around, consider their peers and reflect on those who show consistent practice of the above traits and to then nominate the person they think most deserves this unique award. The nomination must include:

- a short essay that describes the nominee
- a short outline of at least two events where the above traits were demonstrated
- the name of at least one other witness of these events. Witnesses can be students, teachers, administrators or support staff.

Please type your nomination.

Deadline: April 30th
