FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 20, 2024

ASHBURN, Va. - More than 400 students with a total of 51 teams from four middle schools – Harper Park, River Bend, Seneca Ridge and Smart’s Mill – participated in this first season of intramural volleyball. A team from Smart’s Mill Middle – the McDonald’s Elite – claimed victory in the first-ever intramural volleyball tournament on Saturday, February 3.

The pilot intramural sports program, started earlier this year, helps to reinforce leadership qualities, teamwork and respect within the structure of fun competitions. The middle school intramural sports program is open to girls and boys at all skill levels. The sports included in this pilot program are flag football, volleyball, basketball and soccer.

The intramural middle school basketball season started on Monday, Feb. 5 and soccer will kick off in April.

For more information about this pilot program, please go to the Athletics and Activities web page.
